WITH OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Week's Happenings--News Important or Otherwise as Reported By Our Corps of Correspondents.

GRADYVILLE.

We are having plenty of rain. A great demand for fertilizer in our town this week.

J. A. Diddle was at Greensburg one day last week.

J. Q. Alexander, the popular dry goods man, of Louisville, was in our midst last week and as usual had a good trade.

C. O. Moss and wife are attending District Conference at Greensburg this week.

Rev Crouch and wife are the first to have peas that was grown this year in our town.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Charlie Yates has improved fast in the past month, and is now able to attend church.

Mr. J. D. Walker and sons, of Columbia, are spending this week on their farm seeing after their farm work.

Lum Hill returned from Edmonton last Tuesday and reported a nice time while in that city.

Mr. Levi Dulin, the well-known barber, of Edmonton, was in our midst one day last week.

Mr. W. P. Montgomery and son, were with the business men at Milltown last Saturday.

The addition to the store house of Wilmore & Moss is nearing completion which adds greatly to their convenience as well as to the looks of their property.

The Wilmore Hotel is having a new coat of paint put on which adds greatly to the looks of the property.

Messrs. Geo. Staples and Frank Winfrey, of Columbia, were in our town last Wednesday. We could not say that we were glad to see them for we all know just what it means when they come.

The new addition to Diddle & Parson's mill is progressing nicely. Whenever you see a building going up near the creek you may rest assured that it is built preparatory for another flood.

On the fifth Sunday in this month there will be all day services at Morris Chapel. Dinner on the ground. The sermon will be preached by Rev Crouch. A general good time is expected.

On last Friday a strange man made his appearance in our town and it seemed like from the appearance of him that he was a high toned cultured gentleman, and by close attention to his voice and the color of his eyes and hair we found it to be our old friend Squire Gowan, who had recently shaved off clean all of his mustache and beard. Come again Squire we will all know you next time.

KNIFLEY.

Rain is as common as daylight in this section. Farmers have planted very little corn.

Wheat and grass looks well to be so much rain. Crops will be short in this part of the county.
